When I read The Three Little Pigs and The True Story of the 3 Little Pigs, there are some ways the two stories are alike and different.

The first way the stories are alike is that they both have three pigs and a wolf. Another way the stories are alike is that the pigs in both stories both had houses made of straw, sticks, and bricks.

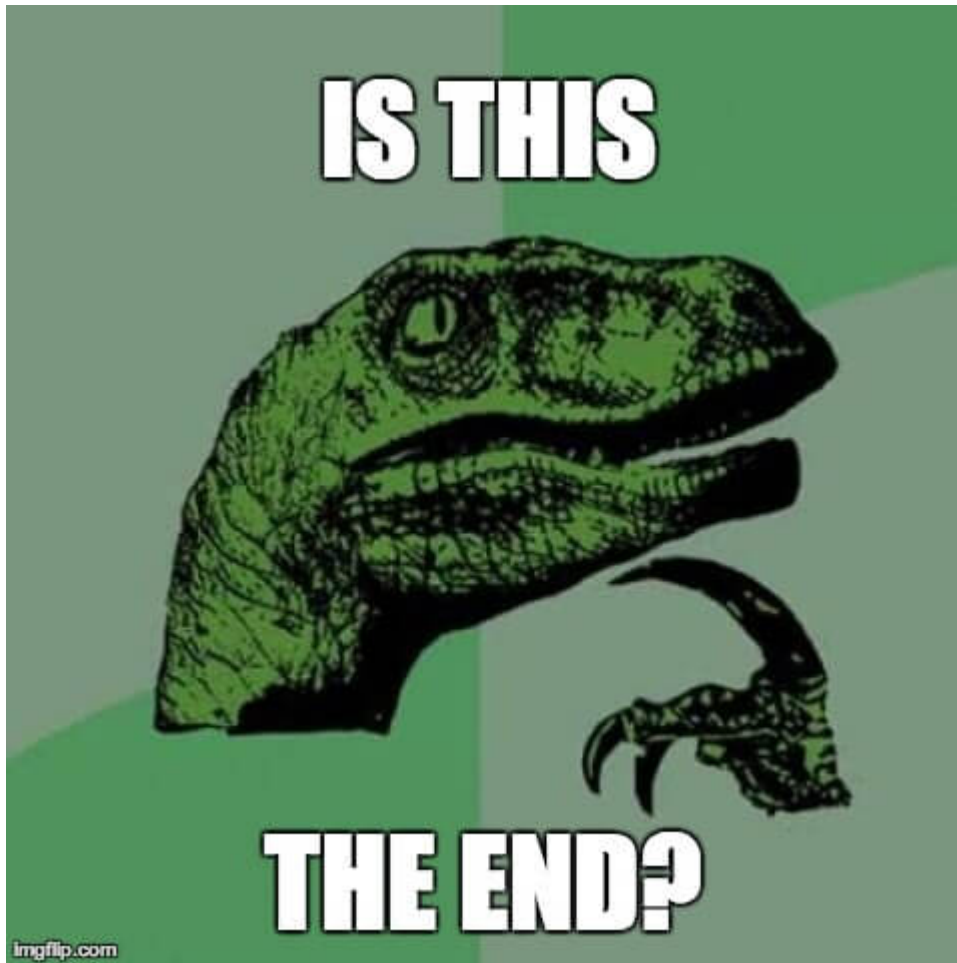

These are some ways the stories are different. In the original version of The Three Little Pigs, the wolf blows the houses down on purpose but in the second story, the wolf blows the houses down on accident. In addition to this, these stories are different because at the end of the first story the wolf ran away but the wolf in the second story was taken to jail.

To conclude, after reading The Three Little Pigs and The True Story of the 3 Little Pigs, you can see these are some ways the stories have parts that are alike and parts that are different.
