Thesis Writing:

Elements of a good thesis statement:

- Your thesis should focus on a single, limited topic.
- Your thesis must be a clear, direct statement.
- Your thesis should then be explained in the body paragraphs of your essay.
 - CRF - A good way to come up with a strong thesis statement is to think about what you want to write about in your body paragraphs.
- Someone else who reads your thesis should be able to predict what the rest of the paper will be about.
- If this is a literary paper, you should include specific titles and authors of the works you will use to prove your point.
- Your thesis should be the last sentence of your introduction.

A simple math problem for forming a thesis:
1. Prepositional Phrase	(One can clearly see)
+
2. A manageable or limited subject	(Eliot's storybooks)
+
3. A specific event, feeling, or feature	(Demonstrate Erickson's Developmental Stages)
→ you will prove this in your body paragraphs
+
4. How you will prove it	Using Goodbye Music
